

What parents and care givers can expect from Story Time

Story Time programs introduce young children to books, rhymes, songs, crafts, and other fun activities. Library Story Times incorporate the early literacy skills that children must master before they can learn to read.

Story Times are designed for children 3-5 years old, though all ages are welcome. The program lasts approximately 45 minutes and caregivers are asked to participate with their children.

January

January 8 and 9 Snow Party by Harriet Ziefert

In our story today, when the first snow falls watch the snow people gather for a snow party! Children will learn a snowman finger play and will make a construction paper snowman.

January 15 and 16 Perfect Snow by Barbara Reid

In today's story, at recess the schoolyard is full of happy kids who join forces to create a perfect snow surprise. Children will make a melted snowman craft and will play with indoor snowballs.

The library will be closed on Monday January 21 in observance of Martin Luther King Jr. Day.

January 22 and 23 Blizzard by John Rocco

In Blizzard, we read how on one winter day it started to snow and it did not stop. Will one boy be able to triumph over a fearsome blizzard? Children will make a hot cocoa craft and play in an indoor obstacle course.

January 29 and 30 Snow Globe Family Jane O'Connor

The little family who lives in the snow globe on the mantel of the big house wonder, "When will it ever snow again?" If only someone would pick up the snow globe and give it a big shake! Children will make a snow globe craft and learn to wax paper ice skate.

February

February 5 and 6 Are You Sure, Mother Bear? By Amy Hest

In today's story, Little Miss Bear will not go to sleep. She simply refuses to sleep even though, "Winter is for sleeping". Children will learn the song "Snow is Falling" and will make a paper plate bear craft.

February 12 and 13 Snowy Valentine by David Petersen

In Snowy Valentine, Jasper Bunny spends a snowy Valentine's Day visiting his forest friends in hopes of finding the perfect gift for his beloved Lilly. Children will decorate sugar cookies and make a Valentine's Day picture.

The library will be closed on Monday February 20 in observance of President's Day.

February 19 and 20 Snow Day for Mouse by Judy Cox

Hooray! It's a snow day in the neighborhood. The family is baking cookies and mouse gets showered with yummy crumbs, but the real adventure begins when mouse gets swept outside. Children will sing "The Snowkey Pokey" and make a winter picture.

February 26 and 27 Nanuk the Ice Bear by Jeanette Winter

Way, way up at the top of the world, in the far, far north, lives Nanuk the majestic ice bear. Join her as she explores her world. Children will make a polar bear construction paper craft and will play with indoor snowballs.
