

Press Release
For Immediate Release

People's University to Explore World Philosophy

The Ohio County Public Library's People's University program will continue in November with a series on World Philosophy. All classes will meet on Tuesday evenings beginning at 7:00 pm.

The six-part series will cover everything from ancient Greek and Roman philosophy, to ancient Asian, Christian, Enlightenment, Romantic, and Contemporary philosophies. Instructors for the program will include Darin S. McGinnis, Ph. D., Assistant Professor of Philosophy at Wheeling Jesuit University and Andy Staron, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Theology and Religious Studies at Wheeling Jesuit University. An additional instructor will be announced.

The People's University is a free program for adults who wish to continue their education in the liberal arts. It features courses — taught by experts in each subject — that enable patrons to pursue their goal of lifelong learning in classic subjects.

The full Schedule for World Philosophy follows (all classes start at 7:00 pm).

Class 1: Nov. 5--What is Philosophy? An introduction to how we make sense of the world. Instructor: Darin McGinnis.

Class 2: Nov. 12 --Ancient Greek and Roman Philosophy. The enduring origins of Western thinking. Instructor: Darin McGinnis.

Class 3: Nov. 19 --Ancient Asian Philosophy. Confucius, Buddha, Hinduism, and more. Instructor: TBA.

Class 4: Nov. 26--Christian Philosophy. Instructor: Andy Staron.

Class 5: Dec. 3--Enlightenment & Romantic Philosophy. The conflict and compatibility of science and freedom. Instructor: Darin McGinnis.

Dec 10: NO CLASS

Class 6: Dec. 17 --Contemporary Philosophy. Language, logic, and existence. Instructor: Darin McGinnis

All People's University classes are free and open to the public. Please RSVP by calling 304-232-0244 or by sending an email to lunchwithbooks@yahoo.com. For more information,